17) The main charges against him are summarised in the President's note to the Council dated 19-5-1928 They are as follows -

(a) " The Manager has no driving power i e , the " capacity to take work that he has no interest in his work, that he has deleberately disobeyed written instructions, that he has been slack and inefficient"

manager, the explanation shows that supervision exercised by him has not been effective (Vide answers to items 4,5,6,and 31)

20) The responsibility for despatch of work in the Accounts section and the collection of dues is stated to be with the Head Accountant and the Revenue Manager respectively

21) In answer to item No 26, Mr Govinda Rao states, " I regret that owing to pressure of work I could not find time to search the tables of the clerks in the Accounts branch ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ I have done this in the Munshi and Council sections" This explanation cannot be considered to be satisfactory

22) While it is reasonable to hold that the Revenue Manager has not failed in his duty if he did not exercise the same close supervision over these two sections as is expected of him in the Office Branch, yet specific instructions given by the President should have been followed

23) It is no sufficient excuse to the Office Manager to say that the Revenue Manager" would not brook any interference on his part" If there was want of co-operation between the heads of other sections and the Office Manager, the matter should have been brought to the notice of the proper authorities and orders obtained for a clear definition of the functions of the several heads of sections The work of the Municipality should not be allowed to suffer

24) The charge of slackness of supervision does not seem to me to be satisfactorily answered in the explanation
